

Joe & Mary Ann McDonald

Speak at Delaware Photographic Society

November 25, 2019

7:30 pm

Cokesbury Village,
Auditorium C

726 Loveville Road
Hockessin, DE 19707

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Joe and Mary Ann McDonald's program "I've Been Hit" Adventures and Stories from 30 Years in the Bush is full of some fun stories and amazing images of their human exploits as well as some touching animal stories along the way.

© The McDonalds

© The McDonalds

Joe and Mary Ann are the most prolific and active husband-wife wildlife and nature photography team in the United States today and spend at least half the year leading photo tours and safaris to exotic locations as well as conducting tours and workshops in the USA. They have written multiple photography books both digital and print; are founding members of the North American Nature Photography Association (NANPA) and are much in demand as speakers and workshop presenters. For more information on the McDonalds visit their website www.hoothollow.com.

For directions or to learn more about the Delaware Photographic Society visit www.delawarephotographicsociety.org.

This organization is supported, in part, by a grant from the Delaware Division of the Arts, a state agency, in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts. The Division promotes Delaware arts events on www.DelawareScene.com.